Ophelia Finke. Lab

LAB | BEARSPACE GALLERY | 31.01.14-28.03.14

“...Ophelia’s LAB installation can be seen as her workspace and experimental ballpark at the same time. The only difference between the sparkling process of art making and scientific research is that the artists are allowed to work untidily, unrestricted by their own toxic wasteland of mess and detritus. Even with the absence of this artist-scientist the installation depicts the furious processes of exploration and calls for adventure like a recently deserted, freshly barricaded crime scene does...”
